Development Gateway

January 2018

DEVELOPMENT GATEWAY
Solutions that empower

Introduction to DG

Development Gateway (DG) is a nonprofit supporting the use of data, technology, and evidence for more effective, open, and engaging institutions.

- Services: Digital Technologies, Data Use and Advisory Services, Applied Research
- Focus Areas: Effective Service Delivery, Total Resource Management, Organizational Strategy and Global Policy
- Partners: 60+ Agencies and Institutions across 35+ Countries

Aid Management Program

Country-Led Aid Coordination

Implemented in over 25 countries worldwide since 2005.

Component I: Aid Information Management System (AMP)

- Country-owned web-based tool for activity monitoring and management
- Features workspaces, reports, dashboards, maps, systems integrations

Component II: Capacity Building and Outreach

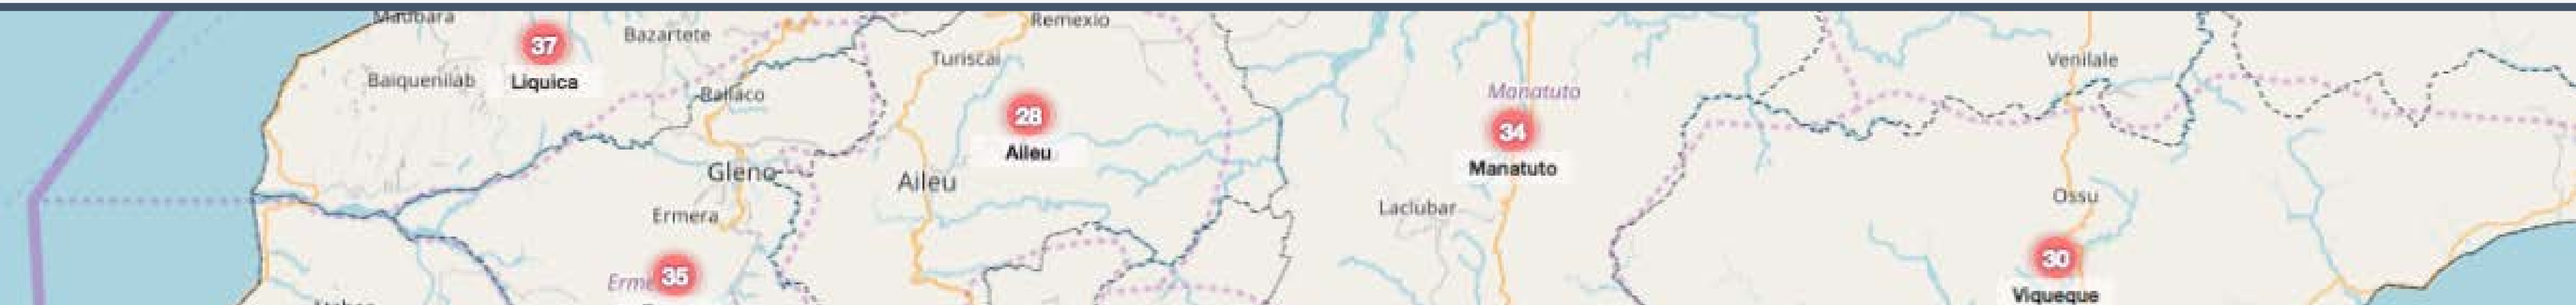
- Trainings and outreach aid agencies, line ministries, civil society

Component III: Policy Support

- Good-practice sharing, public portals, advisory recommendations

Public AMPs

- Chad
- DRC
- Gambia
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Kosovo
- Kyrgyzstan
- Laos, PDR
- Liberia
- Malawi
- Moldova
- Nepal
- Niger
- Senegal
- Timor-Leste
- Uganda



DEMO: https://aidtransparency.gov.tl/portal/

Key Terms

- Commitments: Amount given in the agreement for the life of the project.
- Disbursements: Funding transferred from donor to executing or implementing agency.
- Expenditures: Funding spent by implementing agency.
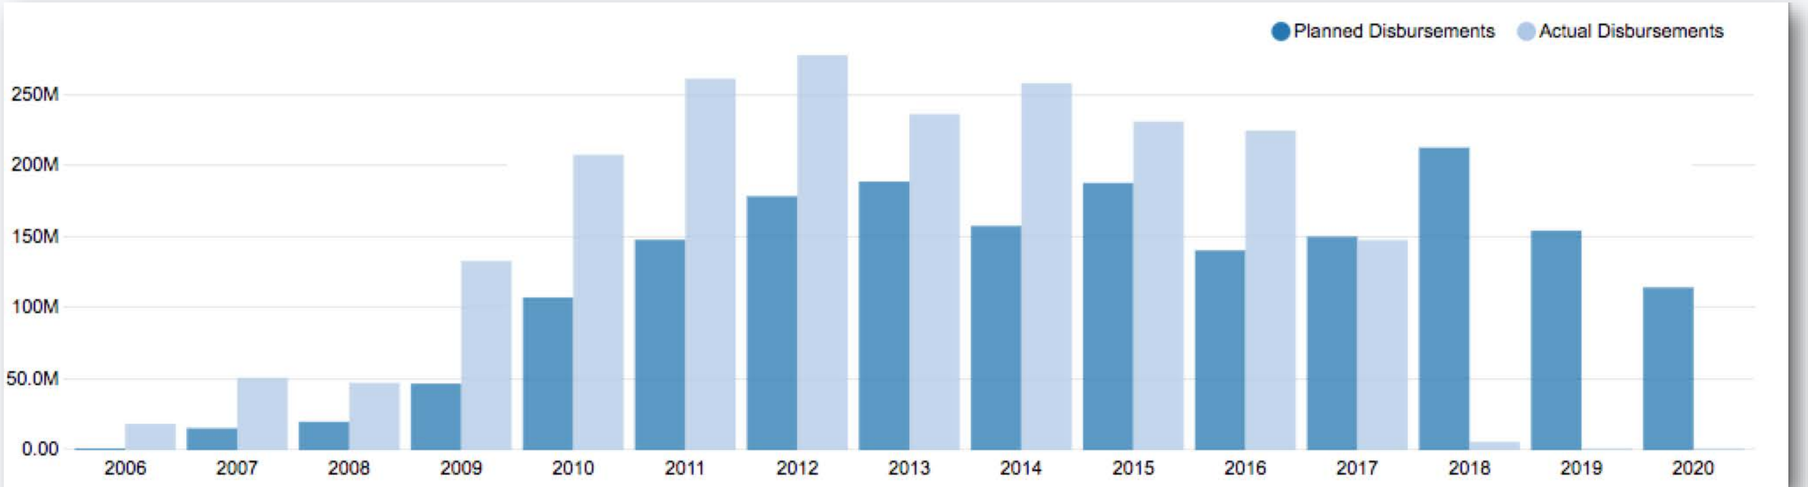
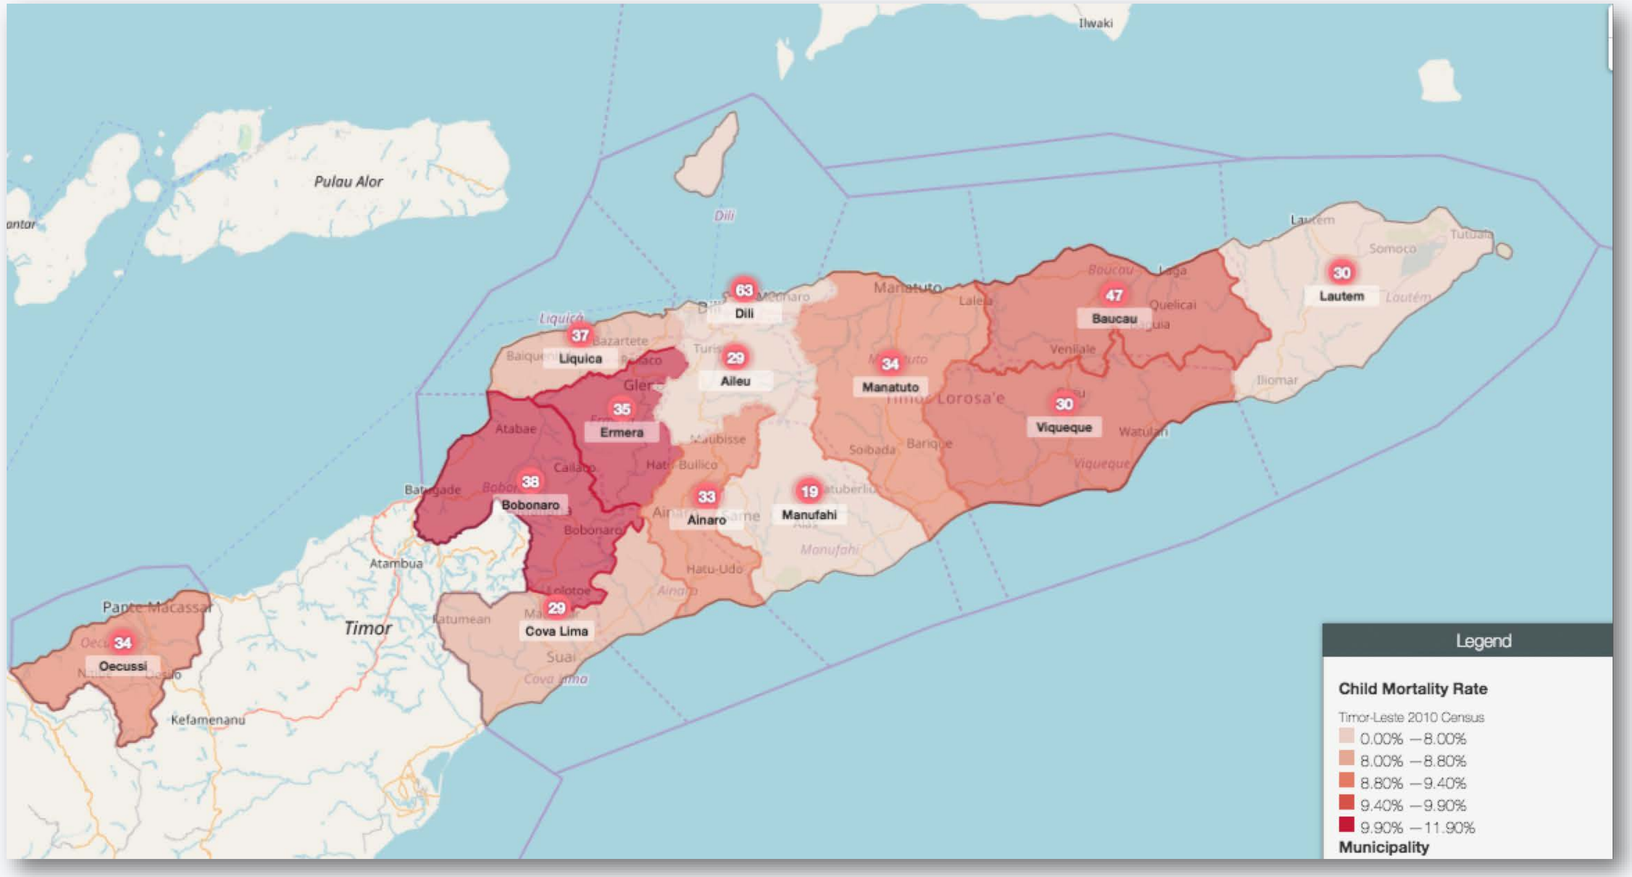
- Donor/Funding Organization: Organizations that provide funding for the project.
- Executing Agency: If there are multiple donor organizations, the organization that is managing the funds.
- Implementing Agency: Organization that carries out project activities.



Questions?


Taryn Davis: tdavis@developmentgateway.org